

BRE Global	Publication
Statement of Impartiality

STATEMENT OF IMPARTIALITY

1. In order that all stakeholders can have confidence in our Conformity Assessment (Certification, Testing and Inspection) , it is essential that BRE Global conducts its Conformity Assessment business in a fair and impartial manner, and with avoidance of undue influence arising from conflicts of interest. BRE Global therefore applies the following principles to maintain impartiality between our Conformity Assessment business and our other commercial activities:
 - objectivity
 - independence
 - neutrality
 - fairness
 - pen-mindedness
 - even-handedness
2. BRE Global also recognises the following potential threats to impartiality
 - financial factors
 - conflicts of interest
 - self-interest
 - self-review
 - bias
 - prejudice
 - familiarity
 - intimidation, internal or external
 - financial or other inducement
3. BRE Global has therefore established a 'Impartiality Committee (under the auspices of the Governing Body) for safeguarding impartiality' whose primary function is:-
 - a) to assist in developing the policies relating to the impartiality of our Conformity Assessment activities,
 - b) to counteract any tendency on the part of BRE Global to allow commercial or other considerations to prevent the consistent objective provision of our Conformity Assessment activities,
 - c) to advise on matters affecting confidence in our Conformity Assessment , including openness and public perception, and
 - d) to review the impartiality of the audit, certification and decision making processes of the certification business of BRE Global Limited.

Uncontrolled Copy if printed Valid on date of printing only	Page 1 of 1	© BRE Global Limited, 2020
Document No: PN205	Revision No: 0.2	Date of Issue: March 2020